Carmen Bitina is working as a high school English teacher. She doesn't think that her life is too unusual, until she finds out that her step-brother, who is engaged to Rebecca, is having a change of heart. Paulo

Rainer is a handsome, charming, billionaire living outside of New York City. He has always been close with his sister, Carmen, but when his relationship with Rebecca gets rocky, he discovers that his sibling friendship is more than meets the eye. Emotions and excitement come to the surface as this love triangle seeks to define what it really takes to have a lasting relationship.
