Boyfriend for Hire: A Stand-Alone Contemporary Romance (Escort Files Book 1) Nina Strych

After Amy makes a small splash in the fast-moving world of business by selling her pharmaceutical start-up, she takes some time to work on herself. Adrift after years of constant work, she opens up to a therapist, who suggests that her inability to form real relationships (the kind that include sex) stems from her inability to simply let go. To relax. After turning down the offer of a sex surrogate, she's given a card and a wink.

Booking a relaxing getaway to St. John means flights, luggage, and now her hunky male escort Mike. A week of no judgement sex might be just the ticket. She also hopes it will finally allow her the space to relax and let her body overtake her mind...for once. She just didn't expect Mike to be so much more than a simple diversion. Smoldering hot he may be, but it's more than his strong arms that attract Amy. Their chemistry is off the charts, but it's her heart that's taking control of her now.

Boyfriend for Hire is book one of the Escort Files series of contemporary romances. Each book features a different woman and her escort as they take their unique path toward love.

New series special pricing of $0.99 for a limited time!
