As an educational tool this system is devised for teaching children to read by taking them on a trail of discovery through 1,000 key first words, their pronunciation and their meanings. Packed with sound effects, illustrations and animations there are thousands of ways to use the dictionary. Children can easily move from definition to definition to learn at their own pace, while the dictionary aids comprehension by presenting opposites, synonyms word groups, and other vocabulary elements in a fun way. Intended for use at home and at school, this CD-ROM allows a child to learn by seeing, hearing, and doing.
