A love affair between an vampire and a werewolf.....

Jacinta was the pride and joy of the pack. She loved her family but was overprotected. She was very sheltered and her whole life was already planned out for her since the day of her birth. She was expected to marry an alpha; someone from another pack and spend the rest of her life with him. She longed to experience life on her own terms and her frustrations to experience pleasures of the flesh lay hidden and were buried deep inside of her.

In the depths of the forest, there was a creature determined to destroy the pack as it claimed his victims one by one. Not only is the pack humbled by the strength and power of the creature, but bonds formed among them will be continuously tried and tested.

She then meets the dark and mysterious Anthony who has manages to keep his distance from everyone except her. Suddenly, a bond forms between the two. They share everything with one another: their thoughts, emotions and bodies creating an unexpected intimacy and passion between the two. He wants her for himself and longs for her to be his one and only but has kept a secret from her which can shatter the very foundation of their relationship.

Can the relationship persist and push forward from the deceit or will it crumble and wither within from the spoken truth?
