“As everything unfolds it’s equally moving and thought provoking.” Desperate Reader

“Domestic fiction meets sensation fiction in this novel. Both funny and atmospheric, and also highly autobiographical, Collins gives us a slice of Victorian life and a not-so-mysterious mystery, but it's a charming book with characters that just pop off the page. This is not a stuffy moralising book, but a tale told wonderfully well, utterly charming and, at times, laugh out loud funny.” Violet

“Another very enjoyable tale by Collins. As usual the plot is a little contrived and full of 'unbelievable' coincidences. However, as ever, his characters are brilliant and it is a page turner. This is my fourth Wilkie Collins and I am looking forward to my next one.” Bill

“Amazing authentic representation of a deaf character. Very interesting story line” Alex
