Learn how relationship with Christ and righteousness in business work together.

Who says that your beliefs and your business cannot make a compatible and profitable relationship? Certainly not Linda Rios Brook. She is living proof that Christian integrity can flourish in the midst of the cut-throat politics of corporate America. She survived more than 25 years in network television as a president of local affiliates. Over the years, she found and maintained the inside track of staying true to the Lord and applying righteous, Godly principles in her work.

Taking cues from Old Testament rulers like Joseph, Daniel, and David, this Wagner Leadership Institute graduate plots a game plan to survive and thrive during the ups-and-downs of "marketplace ministry" while still glorifying God.

Entrepreneurs and evangelists alike should heed these wise words on the apostolic anointing to take dominion over the working world.
