A dark past... Grace Witherspoon's old life in New York was slowly killing her. Daily abuse at the hands of her fiancé forced her to do the unthinkable: Fake her own death and leave the ballet world behind. Now with a fresh start in small town Tennessee, she finally feels safe— as long as no one finds out who she really is. The last thing she needs is the local cop hanging around trying to make-nice. Even if he is the hottest thing in the South, Grace is done with men. A bleak future... Policeman Sloan Jackson is done with women. After catching his fiancée with another man, Sloan decides it's best to focus on crime rather than love. Too bad his match-making sister doesn't agree, determined Grace is perfect for Sloan. Despite his fear of being hurt again, Sloan can't deny the instant desire he feels for Grace and asks her out. But as they grow closer, the past comes back to haunt them. And as secrets bubble to the surface, their new relationship is threatened, along with Grace's safety. When Grace's true identity is revealed, can Sloan ever forgive another woman who's deceived him?
