Accidental Pilgrim: from Mammogram to Miracle Mary Erin O'Brien

Accidental Pilgrim-from Mammogram to Miracle by Mary Erin O'Brien examines faith and humor as shock absorbers to offset a jolting, out-of-the-blue diagnosis of Stage 3 breast cancer. Like a tour guide, Ms. O'Brien invites readers along her trajectory path through cancer, navigating a myriad of medical and faith-related experiences like a curious explorer, finding humor along the way. She discovers a dual journey with cancer and an inverse relationship between the physical and spiritual aspects of cancer. As her body weakened from the punishing blows of cancer treatments, her spirit strengthened and soared toward renewed faith. The story takes a twist when the author encounters a mysterious nun all dressed in white at a small desert chapel, who conveys a prophetic message of a miracle healing. The nun emphasizes, "It will be by your faith that you are healed." All factors converge when the healing occurs – and in a most unlikely setting. A high-ranking oncologist confirms the healing and declares it is "not medically explainable." This compelling, entertaining story affirms the resilience of the human spirit when faced with tragic circumstances. It demonstrates the transformative power of faith that can lead to healing, hope, and health. Praise for Accidental Pilgrim, from Mammogram to Miracle: "Accidental Pilgrim is truly inspiring, funny, and built solidly on faith." -Most Reverend Thomas J. Olmsted, Bishop of Phoenix- "Did you ever imagine you would be laughing about cancer? Neither did I, but that's what happened when I read this account about an unexpected journey into the scary world of cancer told through humor. While rich in experience, it is also "laugh out loud funny!" - Lesley Hoyt Croft, Ph.D. "This spiritual journey is one that will enlighten many not only because of the beautiful graces from God, but above all because of her generous response to those graces, which is what God awaits of us all." - Father Thomas Bennett "Erin is one of the most creative survivors I've ever met. She managed to cope with a serious illness while maintaining her gentle, yet powerful, positive sense of self. She continues to inspire with her generous spirit and joyful, life-affirming attitude." - Dr. Patricia DeBruhl "Here is the story of a woman who experienced a miraculous healing. Three elements of her recovery were courage, comedy, and conviction of faith. It's an inspirational book, a cancer survivor's manual, and a delight to read If you have a loved one facing cancer, it would make a great gift." - Lee B. Croft, Ph.D., Professor, Author, Triophile
