House Rules by Picoult, Jodi 1st (first) Thus Edition (2010)

Emma Hunt's son is accused of murder. She fears he might be guilty. However when he is diagnosed with Asperger's Disease (form of autism) she knows she will do anything to help him. She expects others to not understand. She expects stares and whispers. And when all the hallmarks of her sons condition- his tics, his inappropriate actions, his inability to look you in the eye- can be read by others as guilt; how can she help him? This is a sensitive and hugely illumination exploration of how a terrible physical and emotional condition has a disturbing impact on the families and society affected by it.
