Mists of Seacliffe Rosellyn Sparks

What a great new job! Amanda couldn't luckier. Tutor to a gorgeous movie star's two children. Living in his mansion on the California coast. A beautiful view. A pool and hot tub and gym. Amazing food from the private chef.

But underneath that sparkling image, the truth is less beautiful.

The star's son is a troubled child, and as she struggles to break through to him, Amanda begins to have bad dreams. If they're just stress dreams, though, why are they so specifically about life in the mansion eighty years ago?

Then comes a series of accidents that she suspects are not accidental at all. Either someone is out to scare her, or she is losing her mind. Or is it possible that this beautiful mansion is haunted?
