Selena's romantic heart yearns for a love unavailable to her in the slave colony. She finds the courage to make her alien masters notice her—right when two generals have been promised a human bride. Selena must give herself to not one, but two husbands.

General Hern's act of valor has earned him any reward he wants. He requests a human bride, one he intends to share with his equal, General Xaroth. Their opposing philosophies has divided their troops and harmed the Dak-Hiliah Empire. Hern wants to use a human woman as a tool to finally bring them together. He never intended on falling in love with her.

General Xaroth has the same goals as Hern for the Dak-Hiliah Empire. He merely pursues them without any of Hern's foolish compassion. Xaroth knows Hern is offering to share this woman with him to temper his callous methods. He's not about to let himself be influenced...and certainly not by a woman as gentle and alluring as Selena.
