ROMANCE: The Highlander's Stolen Bride (Historical Scottish Romance Collection) (Pregnancy Alpha Male Short Stories) Annabelle Hunter Rescued by the Highland Warrior

Lorna's father, Chief Iomhar, has recently been beheaded by rival Chief Hamish in the Scotland of days yore. To prevent further bloodshed, she agrees to marry her father's murderer so that his clan will be recognized by the King.

While being escorted by four horsemen, two men kidnap her in the dead of night. One, a gargantuan mute named Carbry, and the other, an over-talkative, charming swordsman called Niven. The swordsman reveals himself to be a chief's son, and states they have kidnapped her to stifle Hamish's plans. Both sympathizing with the other, Lorna and Niven quickly fall in love.

The world is quickly put upside down as Hamish attacks another clan in his quest for dominance. A battle to determine the future ensues.

Will their love survive?

Captured by the Highland Warrior

Mary Maclaren was a princess that knew from the moment that she was born that she was destined to lead the clans.

She learned how to be a leader among her people. She thought that one day the crown would be hers, but her father had other ideas. His desire for what was right for his people outweighed his love for his daughter. It was agreed upon that she would become the wife of Conner and the clan Patrick. She was not very happy about this arrangement, but there was really nothing that she could do.

On her way to become part of the Patrick Clan, she is abducted by a rival Clan. She is to be taken back and ransomed to her father for the highest amount that they can possibly get. During their journey, her abductor Cameron begins to have feelings that go beyond just any kind of friendship.

He soon finds that his feelings are not one-sided. How can he possibly give her up to his brother, when she has captured his heart?
