WHEN YOU PURCHASE THIS BOOK YOU ARE SUPPORTING AN ORGANIZATION THAT HAS BEEN FOUNDED TO LIBERATE THE PEOPLE OF MYANMAR (BURMA) FROM THE PAST 5 DECADES OF BEING DOMINATED BY THE BURMESE MILITARY. OUR AIM IS TO EDUCATE THE PEOPLE ON DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS SO THEY CAN RESIST LEADERS WHO FORCE THEM TO LIVE UNDER TYRANNY.

After five long decades of tyranny under a series of military governments, the people of Myanmar (formerly Burma) still live in fear as their new military-backed “civilian government” continues to be influenced and controlled by a former military dictator.

Aung San Suu Kyi (Suu Kyi) is one of the world’s most prominent political prisoners and was sentenced under house arrest in Burma for almost 15 of 21 years, which is why she is known as “Burma’s Nelson Mandela.” Suu Kyi now has a chance to change the fate of her beloved country.

With her strong leadership skills, Suu Kyi is winning the hearts and minds of the people and gaining political power. However, there are citizens of Burma question her authenticity and view her as a western puppet due to her British family ties and promotion of democracy.

The hidden and brutal forces that still control Burma plan to keep the masses oppressed for the next century and will do anything to execute their plans.

Aung San Suu Kyl is truly the last hope to liberate Burma, but is she only there for personal and western gain? She has many enemies within this current military-backed quasi-civilian government.

For this reason, I ask the question: “what would happen if Aung San Suu Kyi were assassinated?” Would China or the West get involved?

What events would lead to a tragedy of this proportion, and how would the country heal itself in the aftermath?

This book may be considered too controversial because it explores all of these possibilities. This heart-pumping fiction is based on some actual historical events.

[Please note that this book is written as if the narrator is in 2025, but is retelling significant events that happened in 1933, 1945, 1962, 1972, 1988, 2007, 2015, 2016, 2017, and 2025.]
