Welcome to Lily Dale, New York . . . a sleepy summer resort, home to a population of psychics, and the place where Julia Garrity and Kristin Shuttleworth formed a fast friendship broken only by death.

Ten Summer Street is no ordinary house. It was there, fifteen years ago, that Kristin saw something on a Halloween night that would haunt her until the end of her days. Since then, Julia has watched both Kristin and her mother fall prey to whomever—or whatever—lurks there.

Now Kristin's blind six-year-old daughter, Dulcie, has come to live in Lily Dale—at Ten Summer Street. Appointing herself protector, Julia is determined to coax the secrets of the house out into the light, to discover what the little girl "sees" roaming its halls . . . before the murderous force residing there makes them both its next victims.

Christina Bales:

As a student exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart or real their passion. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this In the Blink of an Eye (Lily Dale) can make you really feel more interested to read.
