Law of the European Union (Foundation Studies in Law) John Fairhurst

"Law of the European Community" provides a concise and non-abstract treatment of European Community Law. The first section focuses on the institutions and general principles of EC law in some depth, while the remaining three parts focus on the main principles of substantive law: the free movement of persons and services, and rights of establishment; the free movement of goods; and competition law. The book is ideally suited to undergraduate students of European Law, modular, and distance-learning courses.
