Excerpt from the book

She wanted to get up and unpack but she had to lay down for a bit, she had to think about him. A crush? She thought.

It has to be a silly crush, because nothing warrants feeling this way for him, she tried to reason to herself. But her desires would not stray. Instead, they seemed to surround her as she laid in bed, they seemed to join her in her sheets, making her body excessively warm; hot and bothered.

Suddenly, there was a tap to her door.
