Boy meets girl, the perfect woman, so the world thinks. Noel “Nikki” Brown is all but perfect. Chaos and drama fills her life. She’s both book and street smart, beautiful, attractive and deadly. She’s no stranger to bloodshed and drugs. After all, she’s one of the most well organized drug lords at twenty years old. Raised by a single mother and a grandfather, Noel spends her spare time hunting down the father who threw her family to the wolves. Dazzled by the glitz and glamour, no one sees that Noel is just a scared little girl longing for normalcy and true love. Scorned by the men of her past, Noel vows to never fall in love with a thug, dope dealer or anyone who’s ever been a part of the street life. She knew the men in the game all too well. Noel’s longing for a normal life was only to be granted if she would partake on a mission that could possibly lead to her down fall; kill Justice Owens and his entire team or forever live in debt to the most notorious drug lord of all, her grandfather.

Justice Owens, a small time city thug from the gritty streets of Houston, Texas, and the little brother of the late Jamir “Ghost” Owens, prides himself on hard work and revenge. He’d lost his brother to the streets and was hell bent on finding his killer. Situated in the city of Camden, New Jersey, Justice along members of his team known as RMB (Rich Money Boyz) trace down any clues that may lead to his brother’s killer. He never thought that anything could overshadow his want and need for his brother’s revenge until he meets Noel one beautiful sunny morning.

The duo becomes entangled in a steamy romance, neither wanting to fall in love with the other for their own selfish reasons. When a familiar stranger surfaces, their relationship is put to the test. Hidden agendas, secrets and lies change their life as they know it, but will their love overpower all? Will Noel execute her grandfather’s plan to gain her freedom? Or will she do something she swore to never do again, and love a thug?
