Nick Kiss has everything that he could ever want in life. He has a loving family that seems as though they're straight out of a TV sitcom. He has good grades in all of his advanced placement classes that most would be jealous of. Plus, Nick is one of the most popular seniors at Morrison High School thanks to his desirable, cheerleader girlfriend. Some might even say that Nick's life is perfect. Even if he hasn't seen his older brother since Christmas and his mom is constantly crying because she doesn't want Nick to leave for college. Then, there are the rumors that his girlfriend is cheating on him, which could be true because he always thought that their relationship was too good to be true. And not to mention the fact that him and his best friend are currently fighting. But Nick never expected for his life to be completely flipped upside down when he gets into a car accident with his best friend, Cassie. What makes matters worse, is that Cassie is still unconscious. Now Nick begins to wonder if everything that he held so close are really as important as he thought they once were. Nick also begins to wonder if this is really the person that he wants to be in the world.
