Jesus Christ made it perfectly clear that the "last days" would come. Repeatedly in the Gospels, and then later on in the epistles, He shared with His disciples and the first believers that calamities and catastrophes would mark the last days. Frankly, this generation is seeing the beginning of those days that the Lord spoke of; in other words, we are seeing the beginning of the end.

Our world is increasingly being shaken up by wars, crimes, and violent activity. Currently, the planet is in the throes of an economic disaster the likes of which have never been seen before. We have also seen an increase in the number and scope of natural disasters. More people are without work, without food, and without hope. Unfortunately, the Bible informs us that these are only "the beginning of sorrows". There is much more and much worse to come.

So, what should we be doing in these last days? In this short e-book, national bestselling author Daniel Whyte III shows readers exactly how God wants us to live in these last moments of time.
