Play Easier Chords on Baritone Ukulele That sound Great! This revolutionary book will get you playing real music faster than anything else out there. Because it is smaller and has fewer strings, the baritone ukulele has become a common substitute for beginning guitar. But because it is usually tuned the same as the top 4 guitar strings, beginners experience similar obstacles, frustrations and learning curves. This ground-breaking book... • Shows how anyone from 4 to 94 can play great music in most keys with much easier chord shapes • Reveals for the first time exciting new ideas that dramatically improve your options for playing better music sooner • 9 new tunings are carefully explored • Charts out and compares basic chords in all the practical keys in each tuning • Is packed with ingenious ideas, helpful strategies, tips and explanations from one of America's most respected stringed-instrument players.
