Matthew Stent is an unconventional therapist, whose insight into the damaged lives of his clients has become unhealthily voyeuristic.

As he charts his life and the lives of others through a series of often brutal encounters and acerbic observations, his dubious moral compass leads him further and further from accepted normality and towards an altogether darker, unprofessional and more dangerous path.

When he becomes infatuated with Terri, the wife of his latest client, Matthew's life takes an unexpected twist that leads him on a journey to the mystic heart of England to meet the enigmatic Wiccan High Priest Tobias Greylock, and the shocking discovery that reality is more fragile than anything he could have ever imagined.
