Seven Souls: Harrow, Book 1 (Volume 1) Elissa Stark

IN HARROW, A KILLER CORRUPTS SOULS. NOW HE'S COME TO COLLECT... Detective Phoebe Harris possesses psychometry — the ability to read memories or emotions with a touch. Her gift exposes criminals and killers until an encounter with a psychic child throws her life sideways. Blackouts and a strange voice unfurling inside her mind now haunt her and fill her with questions. One man, a paranormal investigator and father of the young psychic, has answers. However, Jack Gregory needs Phoebe's help tracking a missing person first. While the case spirals into multiple homicides, Phoebe discovers more about Harrow, the town on Georgia's coast where realms blur and demons and angels tread. As the body count climbs, Phoebe and Jack race to find the entity pitting brother against brother. Meanwhile, she realizes the murders may be more sinister than she thought and her abilities with the voice in her head are darker still.
