The Saint that Saved Rome: The true story of how one young woman changed the history of Rome and the Catholic Church Marie Syoen

This is the story of how one young woman, Catherine of Siena, would change the history of the Catholic Church and of Rome. She defied the limitations placed on her by her society, which decreed that she was only a humble nun, and through faith and with fortitude managed to return the Papacy to Rome. It could have been an impossible task, the Pope had been in Avignon for 70 years, but despite the efforts of those working against her, she achieved the impossible and saved the Church from itself.
