Curvy and scarred, polar bear shifter Riley Holland, the girl with the boy's name, doesn't want or need a man. Even if she did, her appearance, combined with her tragic past, have prepared her for a lonely future. When a gorgeous wolf shifter walks into Polar Bliss, her family's coffee shop, Riley allows herself one second of hope...until her worst fear comes true.

Wolf shifter, Nate McCallister, is the new, single sheriff in town, and he has no plans on changing his relationship status any time soon. His looks and job status have always kept him popular with women, but he gave up on dating a long time ago.

The moment he sees the beautiful, curvy goddess behind the counter at the local coffee shop, everything changes.

Riley would rather be alone than have a mate who finds her lacking, and when she meets Nate, she does the only thing that makes sense. She runs. Nate knows he messed up, but he's not going to let Riley get away with running. Once he catches the sweet, guarded bear, she'll understand exactly what it means to be mated to an alpha wolf.
