Building the Builders: Faith Formation in Virtue Patricia Helene Earl

The mission of any Catholic school and parish religious education program is to hand on our Catholic faith to the young people entrusted to our care. An effective program instills virtue not just in instruction but also by modeling and providing reinforcing activities to strengthen religious instruction. This publication is designed to assist administrators, teachers and catechists in deepening their understanding about virtue and how they can renew their calling as builders of faith. This book is for administrators, teachers and catechists in Adult Faith Formation.
