I Do: Hockey Comedy Gay Romance

Kirin's life is spiraling hopelessly out of control. His boyfriend is conspicuous by his absence and he has consigned himself to a loveless relationship, while all the time the object of his desire is just out of reach, but tantalizingly near enough to touch, actually, even closer than that, because after a tequila-filled night of black holes in his memory, he has inadvertently ended up married to his best friend, hockey ace and all around Mr. Straight Guy, Jackson.

But when they try and get out of the accidental matrimony they have found themselves in, they soon discover it's not going to be as easy as that!

Before long they find themselves with seemingly no way out other than to fake it. This might be bad enough for Jackson but for Kirin, getting the object of his affection in the worst way possible, quickly becomes a nightmare. What is he to do?

Reunited: Protector Second Chance Gay Romance

Sam and Dane were two young men on the brink of their futures. Sharing high school adventures together, these two young men were both figuring out how to deal with their homosexuality when they found solace in the sexual expression of each other. Confused and concerned, Sam and Dane live in a world of mixed emotions, fighting their desires while finding each other undeniably linked. When Dane shares with his family the fact that he is gay, his world is turned upside down and he turns to Sam for comfort. But, family pressures and a societal fear push the lovers to the breaking point, life and prejudice seeming to separate them forever. Life goes on and two worlds are built...two very different worlds. Then, an invitation threatens to turn their worlds upside down. Ten years after a graduation, will the reunion of their two souls bring them back together for good? Or, will time and fate tear them apart forever?

The Boys of Winter: Sports Second Chance Gay Romance

Jeremy loved hockey. He had been the captain of the team in college, where he had met the love of his life, Dan. But Dan's father refused to have a gay son. And he had all of the money to ensure it. Breaking Jeremy's heart, Dan let his father's money come between them.

Years later, when they meet again, Jeremy realizes he still has the same feelings for Dan. But does Dan feel the same way? He had gotten married, to a woman. And even if he did, where did that leave Jeremy and his heart? Did he really trust Dan to not break his heart again, after everything he had done in the past? Would Jeremy ever be able to forgive him?
