Lily was not the type of girl that went running for the hills. No, when things got tough, then the tough got going, that was her motto. Yet despite her hard work and perseverance, her career was not leading her down the path she wanted. Not only that, but her love life was not existent. After a particularly rough day Lily goes home to check the profile of her mail-order bride website, and is particularly excited about what she finds. Will she find a smart, handsome man that lives on an animal preservation in Montana? And is he a shifter?
