This book tells a strange mysterious legendary story in the reign of Empress Wu Zetian. One day when it was snowing heavily, Wu Zetian was appreciating the snow-covered landscape while drinking. As she was drunk, she gave the edict to order all the flowers to bloom together in severe winter. Unfortunately the Flower Fairy in charge of one hundred flowers was going on a tour. All the flower fairies who had nobody to ask for instructions and did not dare to defy the edict had to have all the flowers bloom, which broke the laws of God in heaven. Therefore, the Flower Fairy as well as another ninety-nine flower fairies were banished down to the mundane world. The Flower Fairy was reincarnated into the family of the scholar Tang Ao. Having been falsely accused by others, Tang Ao, who was deprived of scholarly honor, engaged in business deals overseas together with his brother-in-law Lin Zhiyang and the helmsman Duo Jiugong. Before sailing off, one of the immortals gave him a dream, asking him to find the flower goddesses leading a wandering life overseas. So Tang Ao embarked on the travel overseas in search of them.
