The presidential character: predicting performance in the White House (4th Edition) (Chinese Edition) James David Barber

"The presidential character: predicting performance in the White House (4th Edition)" describes the stories of US presidents with interesting writing style. However, it is not a history book, for it is not intended to cover the presidents' past, but to predict what is going to happen based on what has taken place. The author believes that the individual personality, world view and political style can help us to predict their actions after they take office. Besides, the author explains and predicts a dozen presidents and potential candidates' behaviors.
