Cruising Through Life: A Memoir Alice Latimer

Around the World in 88 Years Born September 22, 1923, Alice Latimer never dreamed she would grow up to see so much of the world. She lived through some of the most challenging times in American history and overcame polio. Her husband's career - and her own work within the education field - allowed them to travel the world and to reside in areas such as the Panama Canal Zone. Alice credits her grandparents, who sailed from Plymouth, England, in 1887, and settled in Englewood, New Jersey, with her adventurous spirit. Completed shortly before her 88th birthday and another cruise, this book is a gift to Alice's family, but any reader would enjoy her journey. Her experiences in more than 100 countries have taught her that all people have the same needs and that there is generosity, creativity, industriousness, and joy in every corner of the world.
