Scaling the Sermon on the Mount: The View From the Top C. F. Hogg, J. B. Watson

Matthew is the Gospel of the kingdom. So it is appropriate that he should open with a manifesto from the lips of the King Himself. This great sermon explains the relationship between the present dispensation and the one that preceded it, outlines the principles that are to regulate the lives of those who live in that kingdom, warns all of the double danger of rejecting this King and His kingdom or of merely nominal adherence to it.
