"Are you single, but wanting to be married? Have you struggled to find the right person for you, with no success? God said that we should not worry about anything, but pray about everything—and this includes the search for a spouse.

Author Douglas J. M. presents How to Pray for a Christian Wife for anyone who would like to find his or her perfect mate. In this memoir and guide, he explains in detail how to pray specifically for a future spouse. More than that, he proves by the example of his own life that such prayer works—God does answer prayers.

He offers personal testimony about the success of praying for that special someone, providing an example for to follow by adding your own specific characteristics and desires of a future spouse. Once you've started, you can sit back and watch God work things out for you. The power of prayer and God's ability to answer your prayers at just the right time is undeniable. If you give God a chance, reading and following the advice provided here, you just might meet the person you're looking for."
