No Blacks No Irish No Dogs Lord Taylor of Warwick

From humble beginnings, the son of Jamaican immigrants, John Taylor was brought up in the industrial heartland of Birmingham, England.

In 1996 he was admitted to the House of Lords as the youngest and the only black Lord amongst 1,700 Dukes, Duchesses, Earls, Viscounts, Bishops, Barons and Law Lords. He took the title The Right Honourable Lord Taylor of Warwick.

Lord Taylor has become one of Britain's most senior black politicians. As a judge, barrister, university chancellor and Vice President of the British Board of Film Classification, Lord Taylor's judgement has an impact far beyond the historic Houses of Parliament.

Lord Taylor's story is an inspiration to us all. Listen to this remarkable man - with his perfect English accent - and understand why. Lord Taylor is in conversation with British broadcaster Roy Sheppard.

"Strive to be not only the best IN the world, but the best FOR the world." Lord Taylor of Warwick.
