The Blossoming Rose is more than just a book. Each page comes with intuitively guided messages to lead your heart & soul on a beautiful healing journey towards truth, love & peace. Just for today is written underneath each message to remind you to take your healing process one day at a time, loving yourself unconditionally on those days you do trip up & knowing that you can always start again tomorrow. The Blossoming Rose is a metaphor for the journey that we as women go through. First we push through the mud, struggling to find our way as children growing into adults, next the thorns come, these represent our trials, our sadness & the great pain that comes from this, lastly the sun shines, our petals open, beautiful & bright, we have made it! We realize that the beauty of who we are today could never have happened without the sadness of yesterday
